Gov. McCREARY will speak at Cincinnati next Monday. No one is doing better work for the regular ticket than our own ex-Governor, who was a delegate to the Louisville Convention.

At this time when there seems to be a disposition on the part of the Republican party to force gold monometallism on the people, the report of the Director of the Mint, showing that the U. S. has fallen to the third position among the nations in gold producing power, offers food for reflection to those who would take this rash step.

CAPTAIN ED L. HINES, bolter nominee for Secretary of State, is thoroughly fitted to be a candidate on the bolter's ticket. He began bolting Democratic tickets in Warren county when John Rhea's father was running for Congress, and he consistently kept it up until John Rhea was old enough to run himself, and then he bolted John.

JOHN C. DODDGE, of Kenton county, has bolted nearly every Democratic ticket offered in his city and county in the last 10 years, and bolted Bryan in 1896. His consistency cannot be questioned, for he is now bolting a bolting ticket in Covington. He is against George A. Davidson for Mayor, as well as against the Democratic nominee, whoever he may be.

THE Democratic schism is complete. It presages the continuance of Republican administration, the early revision of the election laws, the enactment of protective legislation affecting the business interests of Kentucky, and the honest and economical conduct of the State government.

The above is not from a Democratic but from a Republican paper, the Louisville Commercial. Our bolter friends can now see just what the Brown movement, if successful, will lead to.

JUDGE J. W. GREENE addressed a crowd at Burlington to make a political speech at Williamstown last Monday. The Judge went over to St. Louis the editor of the Williamstown Courier, County Judge J. H. Wooten, but, if the Cincinnati Enquirer's report of the speaking is correct, Ex-Governor Jas. R. McCreary, who had an appointment there in behalf of the Democratic ticket, did the job and the Judge was the man who got skinned. The Louisville Dispatch, the organ of the anti-Goebel people, had no report of this meeting.

—B. J. NEWLIN, in Owen News.

It will be interesting and instructive to know what the leading Republican paper of Kentucky, the Commercial, has to say of the bolter's convention: "The Democratic convention held at Lexington yesterday had its peculiar character. It was rather a curious mixture, as to the sentiment which controlled it, of earnest and honest protest against the political outgrowth perpetrated in this city a few weeks ago, and of purchased indignation that was plainly under the orders of the agents of a corrupt political organization operating within the limits of this State. The leaders of the anti-Goebel movement are in the main sincere and patriotic. A great many of the claqueurs at Lexington yesterday were employed to make a noise which was absolutely without significance, as an indication of Democratic sentiment."

THE CLIMAX is glad to note that wherever Mr. Goebel speaks many who had theretofore been opposed to him are coming forward and giving him the right hand of fellowship, pledging to him their undivided support and are heard to raise their voices in commendation when prior thereto they had only spoken of him in words of condemnation. We trust that the same may be true in regard to those in Madison county who now oppose him. Most of the opposition in Madison to Mr. Goebel is from as good and true men as live in the county. A sense of duty prompts them to this course and we feel confident should they become satisfied that they were in error they would have the manhood to say so, and would thereafter be as faithful as any of the satisfied. It is well known that the CLIMAX is bitterly opposed to Mr. Goebel and its opposition does not originate from the same source, to a great extent, as those here now opposing him. We now believe he is a much abused and foolishly misrepresented man. We believe him to be a patriot, ever ready to battle for the people's interest, and it affords us great pleasure to support him, and we trust that that of our citizens who oppose him may shortly know the pleasure of standing by no noble leader.

It is a pity that their idol is a thing of clay and false the altar that they kneel before, but our bolter friends must know the truth, sooner or later, that John Young Brown was an active candidate for the nomination which was given to William Goebel. He declared himself a Goebel man all the time of the convention, but he kept busy endeavoring to secure the withdrawal of either Goebel, Hardin or Stone in his favor. This is a fact which can be attested by such as Mr. R. F. Peake, Dr. Ben McClasky, of Spencer county, Senator Newton French, of Shelby county, Congressman Wheeler, of the First Kentucky district, and Mr. Edward Leigh, formerly Mr. Brown's private secretary, and now a supporter of Goebel and the Democratic ticket. Failing to secure the nomination himself, Mr. Brown declared he would support the ticket, but at the same time declared that he would be a candidate against Blackburn for election to the United States Senate. Satisfied of the impossibility of attaining that ambition a great light burst upon him, and he offered himself to lead the bolter for considerations of conscience and the vote of the Republican representatives in the next election of a United States Senator. John Young Brown, disappointed office-seeker, has a clear title to a place on the bolter's ticket.

GOEBEL AND THE L. & N.
Fonn, Ky., August 16, 1899.

Editor: Please Enclosed There is a railroad freight agent or solicitor for the L. & N., named Griffin, in our office this morning, who plainly stated that "we (identifying himself with the L. & N.) were trying to get and intended to let Goebel for Governor."

Of course the farmer, the shipper, the merchant, will see that his interests lie in the reasonable and proper restraint and limitations or the rates of freight, otherwise the railroads will simply cut out the land. We can not afford this. I was wondering if the railroad employees knew the strategy Mr. Goebel made for them in the Legislature at last and other sessions? I am a friend of employees. I stood by a friend when the K. C. act, wanted to discharge them without pay. If there is all the land's permit calling for the highest mailboxes, courage and chivalry; if there is one that has developed heroes, it is the one that operates our railroads. From the operator who notes the ticks of his instrument, the train dispatcher, and conductor, down to the humble flagman brakeman, the calling calls for fidelity, capacity and heroism. It is a dangerous calling. Mr. Goebel tried, and measurably succeeded in throwing around these men the safety and protection of law. He went further even than I would go—he stretched justice in a proposed law for the protection of these men and their families. Yes, I wonder if these men, who, if Goebel is elected, will be sacrificed on their necks, will be driven to desert their friends? I can not believe it. If the railroad employees go back on the men who try to protect them by law, then they are slaves indeed, and what I have said of their fidelity and heroism is a part of the property of the country and a great interest, but it is unreasonable to limit the power of the power? That is the essence of Democracy, the safety of the employed class. Think well, then, who you propose by your action to surrender all right, not to right of voting, to corporate power and greed? Be warned! Else the power that enslaves the farmer and merchant ensnare you also.

I might have thought it but Griffin goes, but Milton Smith, with bolter efforts has proclaimed the same intent. I would persecute no interested interests are in a sense allied, but all men (and those of men called corporations) should be under the reasonable restraints of law.

MINISTER'S TRIBUTE TO WM. GOEBEL.

Tells how he was Approached By an L. & N. Attorney.

CRUEL ATTACKS UPON DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE

Have Awakened Indignation and Rallied Many Supporters.

MR. STERLING, KY., Aug. 19.—Rev. W. T. Tibbs, of this city, one of the ablest and best men in Kentucky, having been invited by County Chairman H. R. Prewitt to introduce Mr. Goebel Monday and being unable to be here, writes this strong endorsement of the Democratic nominee for Governor from his home in the Blue Grass.
"John Young Brown was one of our best Governors. During his public career, from his first speech to the recent day of vacillating weakness when he slipped and fell, I followed him with interest and admiration, as in any such case, and sought all information regarding on his life and character and made measurement of the real man. I know him."
"I know William Goebel. With the assurance of knowledge I affirm that the life of William Goebel from childhood to the stormy hour of his death has always moved on a more elevated plane and has developed a far nobler character. He is a man to trust. When the truth has shamed to silence the weary laborer, the slanderer and the calumniator, this heroic man will not only be true, but he will be loved as never before. Since the days of Andrew Jackson has such a Democratic leader stood on the very front of battle to wake all the fury of his foes and to evoke the deathless devotion of his friends."

"Since the Louisville convention I have met two typical advocates of the first to accuse me was a stranger of intellectual force and insinuating manners. He gently unfolded before me an appalling picture of the moral turpitude of Goebel, and against it he told a fascinating story of the shining virtues of all the men in his part of the State who were against the Democratic ticket for the purpose of placing the Republican candidates in power. He asserted that all the good men were against Goebel. A happy coincidence enabled me to test the truth on the subject of all the men in his part of the State who were against the Democratic ticket for the purpose of placing the Republican candidates in power.
